

YGN Speaking Competition Cumbria Branch 2017

A series of short talks on nuclear topics from those early in their career

Tuesday 6th June 17:30-19:45

Refreshments from 17:15

Dalton Cumbrian Facility, Westlakes Science Park, Whitehaven

Our 2017
finalists are:

Megan Carr (Jacobs) presenting:

The Impact of Nuclear on Sustainability

Catherine Brearley (SL) presenting:

The Most Challenging Games of Hide and Seek

Klemen Zafred (SL) presenting:

Procedures: Why we have them and could they possibly have adverse effects?

Alex Parnell (NNL) presenting:

What a Load of Rubbish! Nuclear Waste, an Overview

Jordan Rickard (SL) presenting:

Risk: Why the nuclear industry should take up rock climbing

Mark Gardiner (SL) presenting:

The First Element

Craig Miles (Jacobs) presenting:

Delivering a hugely successful complex projects with collaborative/ partnership arrangement in a high hazard nuclear decommissioning environment.

Come along and support young professionals developing their public speaking skills!

Booking highly advisable although not essential.

For more information please contact

NIYGNcumbria@gmail.com

