How can investment in nuclear help to stimulate the economy?

Following the success of our last Webinar on Small and Advanced Modular Reactors, you are invited to join the New Nuclear Watch Institute webinar on Thursday 23 July at 10:00 UK time to discuss how investment in nuclear can help to stimulate the economy.

This webinar will focus on how reviving the UK nuclear energy industry can stimulate the post-Covid economic recovery. It will provide an update on Sizewell C and how to engineer a net zero town. It will address supply chain issues, including finance. It will also consider the wider benefits of nuclear such as heat and hydrogen.

Chair:

Tim Yeo, Chairman, The New Nuclear Watch Institute

Speakers:

Julia Pyke, SZC Director of Financing and Economic Regulation, EDF Energy

Ieuan Williams, Head of Policy & Public Affairs, Nuclear Industry Association

Andrew Bailey, Growth & Strategy Director, Jacobs

Ian Falconer, Structured Finance, Pinsent Masons
