

Charitable objectives

The Nuclear Institute is a charity (No:1125404) that works with its members to provide education and training, run events, offer services and develop expertise for the benefit of its members and the public as a whole.

The Institute's Objectives are listed in its Memorandum of Association of April 2008 as:

- The advancement of education relating to nuclear energy and its application and ancillary subjects;
- The advancement of nuclear science, engineering and technology;
- In the interests of public safety, the promotion of high standards of education and professional performance amongst those engineers, scientists, and others working within the nuclear industry;
- The promotion of the public understanding of nuclear sciences and the impact on society and the environment; and
- To undertake such other charitable purposes as the Trustees shall in their discretion from time to time decide.