

Workshop D:

Exploring conscious inclusion

During the workshop you will explore why, if you're not actively including, you're probably accidentally excluding. You'll take a look at and explore further, the concept of conscious inclusion – what it is and what it actually means and most importantly discuss how we can be more aware of the behaviours that lead to a more consciously inclusive society.

Delivered by:
Deena De Vries Jones